

URGENT RESPONSE REQUESTED

Date of Request: [December 18, 2006]

From: PNAS on behalf of [William C. Clark]
202.334.1336 Fax
202.334.[1336] Phone

Title: “[Sustainability Science: A room of its own...]”

Author(s): [William C. Clark]

I am preparing the above paper for an article to be published in the Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences USA (PNAS), 500 Fifth Street NW, NAS 340, Washington, DC 20001.

I request your permission to include the following material in all editions of this work to be published by the National Academy of Sciences (NAS) or its licensees in perpetuity, including derivative products; for distribution throughout the world and by third parties on behalf of the NAS; in all media including print, online, and other electronic formation; and in all languages.

Title of Publication: [Pasteur's quadrant: basic science and technological innovation (1997)
Brookings Institution Press, Washington, D.C.]

Author(s)/Editor(s): [Stokes, D. E]

Figure(s)/Table(s): [Figure 3-5. "The quadrant model of scientific research" Page 73.]

The standard form of acknowledgment is to quote the author(s) and publication title of the original material and the words “Reprinted with permission from.....”. Please confirm the name of the copyright holder in the space below. If you wish the acknowledgment to read differently, please indicate the required format.

Please indicate your agreement by signing and returning this letter. Retain a duplicate for your files. In signing, you warrant that you are the sole owner of the rights granted and that your material does not infringe anyone else’s copyright. If you do not control these rights, please let me know to whom I should apply.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this request, as publication of the manuscript is currently on hold until we receive permission.

-----

I/We hereby grant permission for the use of the material requested above.

Date: _____ Signed: _____

Copyright holder: _____

Publisher: _____